Introduction

CIOL Qualifications serves both professional linguists, providing the gold standard for translators and interpreters, recognised widely in the UK and around the world, as well as other linguists who may have a different primary role but who use their language(s) on a regular basis in their professional work.

The CIOL Qualifications Level 6 Diploma in Public Service Interpreting (DPSI) was first introduced in 1989 and demonstrates CIOL's commitment to language training for the workplace.

Linguists seeking recognition as an interpreter can take the Diploma in Public Service Interpreting which offers pathways in Law or Health.

The qualification provides candidates with important recognition and validation of their skills in these specialist areas and provides reassurance to employers, public bodies and those benefiting from the services of freelancers that the interpretation provided by qualified holders of the Diploma is of the highest professional standard.

Regulation

The award is recognised by the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation (Ofqual), the Council for Curriculum, Examinations and Assessment (CCEA) and Qualification Wales.

CIOL Qualifications Recognition Number RN5145.

Qualification Information

Qualification purpose

This qualification is aimed at career development for the following reasons:

- it gives confidence to users of public services living in communities where English is the second language
- it can be combined with parallel training for professional or vocational work in a workplace based context and the public services in particular
- successful DPSI candidates can apply for registration on the National Register of Public Service Interpreters

Qualification size

The words Award, Certificate and Diploma indicate the size of qualifications in expected hours of study and not their quality or complexity.

- Awards are usually qualifications with up to 120 hours of study required.
- Certificates are usually qualifications that require between 130 and 370 hours of study.
- Diplomas are usually qualifications that require more than 370 hours of study.

This qualification is classed as a Diploma as the Total Qualification Time (TQT) in expected hours of study is 440 hours.

Rules of Combination (RoC)

There are five core mandatory units that comprise this qualification and all must be successfully achieved (mastery) to be awarded the CIOL Qualifications Level 6 Diploma in Public Service Interpreting.

Candidates may take the units in any order.

Partial and full achievement of this qualification

All units that comprise this qualification must be successfully completed within a three-year period for candidates to be awarded the full qualification.

The three-year full exam completion period applies from the first year that a candidate receives a unit certificate. Therefore, once a candidate has received a 'pass' in any exam, they have two more years to successfully complete all outstanding parts of the qualification.

Candidates successful in all five units will be awarded electronic qualification certificates.

Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF)

The DPSI is registered on the UK's Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF) at Level 6 and the complexity and level of linguistic skill demanded is in line with the Ofqual RQF level descriptors.

Level	Knowledge descriptor (the holder...)	Skills descriptor (the holder can...)
L6	Has advanced practical, conceptual or technological knowledge and understanding of a subject or field of work to create ways forward in contexts where there are many interacting factors. Can critically analyse, interpret and evaluate complex information, concepts and ideas.	Determine, refine, adapt and use appropriate methods and advanced cognitive and practical skills to address problems that have limited definition and involve many interacting factors. Evaluate actions, methods and results and their implications.

Equivalencies

This qualification is roughly equivalent to a:

- Degree apprenticeship
- Ordinary degree with honours
- Graduate certificate
- Graduate diploma
- CEFR language proficiency C1 level

The DPSI (English Law) previously had three units which were equivalent to units of the DPI.

Please note that the DPI is being withdrawn and is no longer available for new candidates. The final exam dates for existing candidates are June 2023 and June 2024.

Further details on equivalencies can be found by contacting: info.dpsi@ciol.org.uk

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Exemptions

CIOL Qualifications does not operate RPL for this qualification.

Entry Requirement

This qualification is for those candidates aged 18+.

Recommended level of linguistic proficiency and pre-requisites

There are no set pre-requisites, however, you are strongly advised to ensure prior to registering, that your level of linguistic attainment in the source language is at the very least equivalent to a good Honours degree, and that you are familiar with the relevant cultural background.

The level of linguistic proficiency expected is that of the National Language Standards Level, first degree level. Candidates entering for the DPSI should speak two languages fluently (C1 level) – English and the Other Language – and be able to interpret (consecutively and simultaneously) and translate both into and out of English.

Candidates are expected to be familiar with procedures and specialist vocabulary relating to chosen pathway. These will be tested in all of the examination tasks both in English and the Other Language.

Progression

The Diploma in Public Service Interpreting qualifies successful candidates to apply for:

- registration on the National Register of Public Service Interpreters (NRPSI)
- work in public service interpreting through the Crown Commercial Service Language Services Framework Agreement
- membership of Chartered Institute of Linguists
- further study at Level 7

Availability of the Diploma in Public Service Interpreting

The assessments can only be taken online via our Virtual Centre or online with a CIOLQ approved Exam Venue in the United Kingdom (UK).

No other mode of assessment will be permitted.

Delivery and preparation

We do not specify mode of training delivery or preparation. It is advised that candidates should follow a preparation course for this qualification so that it offers the chance for candidates to achieve.

The Guided Learning Hours (GLH) hours reflect the flexibility of approach which may comprise independent study, face to face, blended or e-Learning.

Languages

CIOL Qualifications offers qualifications in a broad range of languages and at all times ensures consistency in level and standards across all languages.

CIOL Qualifications reserves the right not to set an exam in a particular pathway or language. Availability of language is dependent on demand.

Assessment

Focus

The qualification consists of five units. The unit exams test candidates' knowledge and vocabulary in both English and their chosen Other Language. In order to provide a realistic level of assessment, each of the units is set in a practical context.

The exams are set within a work-related context in the two public services areas of Law and Health. Candidates must stipulate when registering in which of these pathways they wish to be examined.

Candidates are examined in English and one language other than English.

Candidates should be familiar with and able to use the concepts and language appropriate to their chosen pathway. The exam tests the ability of candidates to communicate effectively at A level standard in English and Other Language outside their home and family in work-related areas.

Assessment grading

Each unit attracts Pass, Merit or Distinction but the qualification grade overall will be a Pass.

Unit format

Level – this positions the level of the unit within the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF).

Credit value – is the value given to the unit and the credit value is equal to the Total Qualification Time (TQT) divided by ten and rounded to the nearest whole number.

Total Unit Time (TUT) – is the average amount of time it will take to complete the unit. This includes guided learning hours, practical and work-based learning, assessment preparation time and assessment time.

About the unit – gives a summary of the purpose of the unit.

What you will learn – details the knowledge and skills a candidate should cover.

Learning outcomes – set out what a learner will know, understand or be able to do as a result of successful completion, including the standard required to achieve via assessment.

Indicative content – provides guidance on suggested curriculum coverage required to achieve the learning outcomes and assessment criteria.

Assessment marking criteria – set out the level descriptors for the units.

Units

Unit 01: Interpret consecutively and simultaneously in the public services

Core unit
Level:	6
Unit Guided Learning Hours (GLH):	22 hours
Total Unit Time (TUT):	120 hours
Credit value:	12
Unit purpose and aim

About the unit

Public Service Interpreting plays an important role in a range of different situations, where a high level of concentration and ability to deal with sensitive issues is expected. Other important aspects of public service interpreting are accuracy of transferred information, the effectiveness of communication and transfer of spoken information between English and Other Language. These skills are important in the context of public service work because they enable interaction between various people where there is a need for transfer of spoken information, for example when assisting social workers, legal representatives and welfare officers.

This unit focuses on testing basic linguistic and interpersonal skills needed, contextual knowledge, and the awareness of the role and responsibilities of the interpreter.

What you will learn

In this unit you will develop skills in interpreting consecutively and simultaneously, be able to facilitate communication between an English speaker and a speaker of Other Language utilizing listening and speaking skills at the appropriate level and being aware of the applicable register.

Learning Outcomes

- LO1: Be able to consecutively interpret between English and Other Language with accuracy, completeness, and coherence
- LO2: Be able to deliver interpretation between English and Other Language smoothly and clearly, switching easily between languages and techniques with competence
- LO3: Be able to interpret between English and Other Language and vice versa using appropriate vocabulary, grammar, and pronunciation.

Unit 04: Translate into English in the public services

Core unit
Level:	5
Unit Guided Learning Hours (GLH):	16 hours
Total Unit Time (TUT):	90 hours
Credit value:	9
Unit purpose and aim

About the unit

Today linguists have a critical role to play in helping the public services to reach most vulnerable members of society and to inform them of their rights. Public service translation requires a high standard of written language transfer and understanding of social issues, legal procedures and/ or health service structure. Without good translation skills successful court interviews would not take place and the quality of an investigation could be compromised.

This written translation unit tests the candidates' ability to transfer content from Other Language within context into English, within the Public Services area. This is an important skill that provides reassurance to employers, public bodies and those benefiting from the services according to the particular task requested.

What you will learn

You will produce a translation from your native language into English, from a text of a semi-formal nature such as regulations, instructions or official correspondence enabling the English audience to take appropriate action based on the translated document.

Learning Outcomes

- LO1: Be able to convey an accurate translation of the source text without omissions, additions or distortions
- LO2: Be able to provide a text which reads like an authentic piece of writing in the target language with good coherence and sentence structure and linkages
- LO3: Be able to provide a well-presented text suitable for the intended purpose displaying good awareness of intercultural differences
