What our members say

Jaquelina Guardamagna
 Being Chartered represents an internationally recognised seal of quality for my English and Spanish qualifications, linguistic expertise, and professional credibility.
 Member, Translator/Interpreter

Bokani Hart
 What is clear is that in the high-stakes situations in which I work, there is simply no substitute for the oversight and human judgement of a professional linguist. CIOL helps me stay connected, credible and confident.
 Member, Translator/Interpreter

Steve Doswell
 "I use my languages in my professional life but hadn't always thought of myself as a 'language professional', so I'm very happy that CIOL has made me feel welcome and fully part of the CIOL community."
 Member, Business, Professions & Government

Marcela Cazzoli
 "CIOL is a strong voice for languages and for the value of excellence in language skills, and it's so important that this case continues to be made."
